Lowes History.

Lowes is a leading Australian menswear, young menswear and Schoolwear retail chain offering well-made clothing at affordable prices.

As a family-owned business, Lowes is part of a small but elite group of companies, which have been in business for 120 years and still 100% Australian owned.

For over a century, the company has been built on integrity, forward planning and financial success. Today, with over 200 stores nationwide, it continues to expand steadily as it has for many years.

In a brand conscious society, while many outfitters have paid dearly to charge more for a somewhat pretentious, upmarket image, Lowes have maintained a simple, down to Earth integrity in the way they have conducted business for over a century. Since it was founded in 1898, it has grown from a traditional "value for money" menswear store to become a well-known Australian icon in its own right.

Today, Lowes continues to offer the public a range of well-made clothing at affordable prices. Lowes has expanded from its traditional offering of menswear and business wear to offer a full range of school wear, young mens wear, sportswear, active wear, footwear and work wear.
